In grade school, one of the nuns told our class that we should always remember that Jesus is the unseen visitor in every home, a guest at every meal and a friend in every moment. If we thought about it, she said, we would avoid sin and please God in all that we said or did. In our young minds, it explained precisely the spiritual relationship we had with the Lord.

Today, the end of the Church year celebrates the Kingship of Christ and we are presented with an image that seems anything but royal. The throne of Jesus is the cross and His dominion extends to all creation and all things, good and evil. In destroying sin, He wins for us everlasting life. No king has ever fought a battle with such enormous consequences, so great that we measure history as before and after Christ.

If someone enters your home, would they know about your faith? Do you have those reminders of God's presence among us: a crucifix, a small statue, or a religious painting? Is a Bible enthroned in your home? If indeed we call Jesus the King of the World, and the Ruler of our Hearts, where does He fit in? Give the Lord some recognition and some space in your home. He'll be sure to make space for you in His.

"Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever" Psalm 118:29

Let us Pray: Heavenly Father, as we gather on this day of Thanksgiving, we remember the words of Holy Scripture that call us to give thanks in all circumstances. Lord, we thank You for the countless blessings You have bestowed upon us, both in times of joy and in times of challenge.
We are grateful for the love of family and friends who surround us, for the food on our table, and for the shelter over our heads. Most of all, we thank You for Your presence in our lives, for Your grace, and for the gift of salvation through Your Son, Jesus Christ. Help us, dear Lord, to always maintain hearts filled with gratitude, not just on this special day but every day of our lives. May we continue to count it all joy and to give thanks in all things. In Jesus' name, we offer this prayer of thanksgiving. Amen.

Happy Thanksgiving to all. Let us be thankful for God's Word and for the ability that we have to be grateful in all things.

May God's peace be with you all,

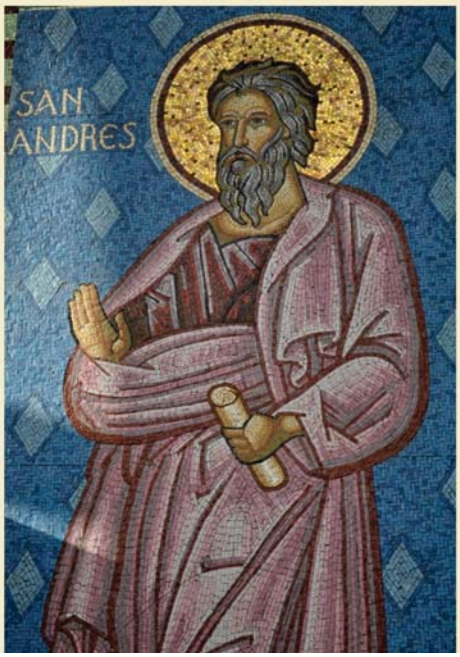
Saint Andrew the Apostle

FIRST CENTURY
FEAST DAY — NOVEMBER 30

In the synoptic Gospels, Andrew is a Galilean fisherman grouped with his brother, Peter, and with James and John in the inner circle of Apostles; in John's Gospel, he is the disciple of John the Baptist who is the first to follow Jesus and who brings his brother to the Lord. Many traditions about Andrew come from the apocryphal second-century Acts of Andrew, which depicts him as a zealous missionary in the Black Sea region who is crucified—tied to an x-shaped cross—by the Roman governor. Some early church historians also said he evangelized in Greece and Asia Minor. He is the patron saint of Scotland, Russia, Greece, and those who fish for a living.



"He was truly a man of faith and hope; and one day he heard John the Baptist proclaiming Jesus as: "the Lamb of God" (Jn 1:36); so he was stirred, and with another unnamed disciple followed Jesus, the one whom John had called "the Lamb of God". The Evangelist says that "they saw where he was staying; and they stayed with him that day…" (Jn 1: 37-39). Thus, Andrew enjoyed precious moments of intimacy with Jesus."
